

Kickstarter activities Port

We invite researchers (early career as well as established careers) to contribute to 2 activities for 2022 to kickstart the Theme Port of Resilient Delta. Deadline: July 25th, end of day. Please use the proposal template and keep your application brief. We aim to let you know the results before August so you can start as soon as possible. Please note that we are not able to fund permanent contract based scientific staff.

For more info e-mail: Jelle.burger@tudelft.nl

Seeding studies:

What is it: study into a new research field/topic

Max. budget per project: 40K

When: August - December 2022, or longer if fitting De liverables: report, application for larger NWO/EU grant etc.

Impacter:

What is it: for ongoing projects that want to implement part of their project/ongoing research

Max. budget per project: 8k

When: before December 2022

Deliverables: prototyping, round table discussion, policy briefs or create media footage.

Conditions for applying:

- Topic contributes to overall theme of Resilient Delta
- Relevance for policy Port of Rotterdam and/or City of Rotterdam
- No other way of funding for specific idea
- 2 or more researchers (TU Delft, Erasmus University, Erasmus MC) -> Convergence based
- Project idea not yet covered by EUR, EMC or TUD research projects (not applicable for impact projects)
- Preferably majority of budget spent before 2023.
- Maximum of 2 pages content

Based on these conditions, proposals will be evaluated and selected by the RDi Port coordination group. Please submit your ideas using the format attached no later than July 25th, to jelle.burger@tudelft.nl